

放映會

/

映後談

SCREENING / Q&A

嘉賓 Guests

導演 Director

范儉 Fan Jian

詩人 Poet

余秀華 Yu Xiuhua

主持 Moderator

楊錦麟 Yang Jinlin

PRESENTED BY

SUPPORTED BY

MEDIA PARTNERS

今天還是
明天還是
人間

Synopsis

YU Xiuhua is a village woman with cerebral palsy. She became China's most well-known poet in 2015. 20 years ago, her mother married her off to a stranger. This marriage has become the biggest pain in her life. Through her poems, she contemplates her fate, and writes about her body, desire for true love. With the popularity of her poems has come fame and financial independence. Yu wants the divorce for freedom in love and in marriage.

Date: 13 Oct 2017 (Friday)

Location: Yuet Ming Auditorium, 5/F Chong Yuet Ming Cultural Centre, HKU

7:00 pm: Screening (88 minutes, Putonghua with Chinese and English subtitles)

8:30 pm: Q&A in Putonghua

Speakers: Fan Jian (Director), Yu Xiuhua (Poet)

Moderator: Yang Jinlin

Register here. Free admission:

<https://www.eventbrite.hk/e/38106068276>

Co-organized by: Journalism and Media Studies Centre (HKU); Department of Comparative Literature, HKU; Centre for the Study for Globalization and Cultures